Dear Dr. Goldberg:

It is an honor and privilege for me to congratulate you on attaining Distinguished Life Fellow status. As a Distinguished Life Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association, you have achieved the highest honor that your profession can bestow. You have my personal gratitude for your years of service to your patients and profession.

You are cordially invited to attend the 2017 Convocation of Distinguished Fellows, where your new status will be formally recognized. The ceremony will be held during the APA's Annual Meeting in San Diego, CA on Monday, May 22, 2017 from 5:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. at the San Diego Convention Center, Exhibit Hall F, Ground level.

Although the Convocation will begin at 5:30 p.m., we are requesting that you arrive promptly at 4:45 p.m. to assemble. There will be a seating area reserved for you, as well as a separate area reserved for your guests. Guests are not required to register for the Annual Meeting to attend the ceremony. Business attire is recommended.

You will continue to be afforded the rights and privileges associated with your former Distinguished Fellow status. To see a list of all of your membership benefits, please visit psychiatry.org/mybenefits.

Thank you for your many years of membership and dedication to the profession. I look forward to seeing you at the Convocation ceremony. If you have any questions, please contact us by email at membership@psych.org or by phone at 703-907-7300.

Sincerely,

Saul Levin, M.D., M.P.A.
